The racing was very good, and a large The weather was cool and pleasant. The opening event went to the favorite, Zaldivar. In fact, he was the only one in it from the start. He opened up a big gap going down the backstretch and pulled double Harry Alonzo, the second choice, eas-

by bear resistence for the place. The others were strung out.

Dalsyrian, an odds on favorite, won the second race by a few inches. If Lemon Blossom had been gifted with sense enough to stick out her tongue, she would have received the verdict, so close was the finish.

Lemon Blossom was a 20 to 1 shot, and Zaldivar jumped away in front, led all te way and won under a pull by three ngths from Harry Alonzo, who was ell up throughout. Persistence was tird, six lengths away. Time—1.57.

Then she told about her husband's penchant for mourning, not second mourning with a dash of color to make a pretty face attractive, but deepest mourning, with a crepe veil and other symbols of a heart-rending sorrow-for his mother dead twenty years.

The unhappy bride declared, too, that the Professor had mediaeval ideas regarding his duties as a husband and administered corporeal punishment to his bride before the earth had turned once around on its axis. She says he has abused her periodically ever since and down to a few days ago when she resolved to resist and bested him in a hami-to-hand conflict, or rather a hand-to-broomstick one—for Mrs. MacArthur armed herself with the regulation implement of war among spirited housewives. But the war was not over, and Mrs. MacArthur is weary of living under an armed truce, and hence she applied to Police Justice Connelly as stated, and then went home to her parents in Pacific street to await the onslaught of the legal reinforcements engaged against her spouse.
